THURSDAY, 14 MAY – The Centre for the Promotion of Knowledge and Language (PPIB), Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) will be organising their Kaamatan Carnival 2015 starting from 25-28 May 2015 in conjunction with the Kaamatan Festival which is celebrated in the month of May.

According to a statement issued by PPIB, many interesting activities have been lined up throughout this four-day event which includes PPIB Sugandoi Kaamatan (singing competition), karaoke, traditional handicraft exhibition, traditional cooking demonstration, sessions with local artistes and many more.

Visitors would have the chance to meet with local artistes namely Rey, Rhowel Rolland Pagi, Fabian William, Lydia Kalidin and cartoonist Langkawit.

For those who would like to participate in the PPIB Sugandoi Kaamatan (singing competition), their choice of songs must be in the local dialects. Please obtain the registration form from Patesia Philip by calling her at 019-8124358.

As for those who would like to set up booths and participate in the selling of products, tents are available and are on loan at a minimal fee.

More information can be obtained by calling Veronica Petrus Atin at 011-26857017, or Nelson Justin Adeh at 019-5846520 or Eveny Joseph at 013-8998746.

All are welcome. – FL
