

UMS student gets Best Accounting

Student Award

DE 27.10.2019 6

KOTA KINABALU: A Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) accounting student was the recipient of the Best Accounting Student Award 2019 by the Malaysian Institute of Accountants (MIA) at the MIA International Accounting Conference (Miac) 2019 in Kuala Lumpur, recently.

Mazwan Sarihasan (pic), who now works at the Malaysian PFK company, has undergone industry training at Ernst & Young Sandakan and will be graduating at the 21st UMS Convocation Ceremony which on Nov 23-25.

He thanked the lecturers and mentors at the Faculty of Business, Economics and Accounting (FPEP) for their commitment and dedication that helped him to succeed.

He was selected to receive the award for outstanding achievement, not only in academic but also in co-curriculum.

At the ceremony, Mazwan received a certificate of merit, cash from MIA and a special fee exemption to participate in the Accredited Aquaculture Institute in England and Wales (ICAEW) programme.