KOTA KINABALU: The achievements of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) staff have brought a pride to the university.

Its Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic and International), Professor Dr Rasid Mail, said every achievement is indirectly a measure of the achievement of the entire organisation.

"Excellence is the result of the cooperation of each individual in an organisation.

"Every individual contribution and effort, no matter how small, will later produce greater excellence, which is the excellence of the organisation," he said during the Faculty of Engineering Aspirations Meeting (MAF) in a hotel here recently.

Dr Rasid invited all university students to pray together so that the harmony and understanding that has been established among students continues to be strong and fertile.

"I pray that the Faculty of Engineering will always be committed and maintains an
