KOTA KINABALU: A state Para badminton player is one of the 4,728 graduates to receive their scrolls at the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) 22nd Convocation Ceremony.

Mohd Nasrun Mahadi, 27, who graduated with Bachelor of Economics (Human Resource Economics) from the Faculty of Business, Economics and Accountancy (FPEP) was present with his parents.

"Even with my disability, I want to prove to others that nothing will stop me from succeeding," said Nasrun who revealed in a statement issued by UMS that his left kneecap developed abnormally since he was six years old.

And true to his words, not only Nasrun excels in academic but also in sport.

Nasrun, speaking after the fourth session of the convocation at the Chancellor's Hall on Monday, said he had just returned from Kuala Lumpur just one day prior to receiving his scroll.

"I will represent Sabah in the Para Malaysia Games (Para Sukma) later this year and my advice to fellow athletes with disabilities (OKU) to continue to stay positive and don't give up easily in pursuit of your dream," said Nasrun who hails from Semporna.

At present, the third of four children is doing part time as e-hailing driver around the city.
