

Council of Sabah Senior Citizens Associations president passes away

TBP 27.12.2021 P.04

KOTA KINABALU: Council of Sabah Senior Citizens Associations president Jimmy Ng Thau Shing passed away at the age of 85 at his residence in Luyang on Christmas eve.

He leaves behind his wife, five daughters, a son, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

His wife, Koo Yuan Jo, was also the founder of KOAT.

Ng had devoted himself to education since 1956, including five years as an English lecturer at Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS).

He had served as the president of the Council of Sabah Senior Citizens Associations for eight years and was the chairman of Persatuan Kecergasan dan Pembangunan Orang Tua Kota Kinabalu (KOAT) for 20 years.

Jimmy Ng
Thau Shing

He was also conferred the Ahli Mangku Negara (AMN) by the Yang di-Pertuan Agong as well as Ahli Darjah Kinabalu (ADK) and Ahli Setia Darjah Kinabalu (ASDK) by the Head of State in recognition of his contribution.

His funeral service will be held at 8am on December 28 at his residence and thereafter will proceed to Nirvana Memorial Park for burial.