

GLoCALL 2010 INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 1-3rd DECEMBER 2010

Oleh: Dr. Lee Kean Wah, Co-Chair of GloCALL 2010 Conference

SESD successfully organized a 3-day International Conference on Computer-Assisted Language Learning (CALL), themed "Go Global, and Go Local" together with two renowned international associations of CALL in the Asia-Pacific region i.e. APACALL (Asia Pacific Association of CALL) and PacCALL (The Pacific Association of CALL) at UMS and Le Meridien Hotel from 1-3 December 2010.

The conference was attended by more than 240 participants, comprising a host of international and Malaysian presenters, local teachers and CALL practitioners from more than 20 countries. A total of 100 papers, 4 plenary sessions, 3 symposia, 2 forums, and 3 pre-conference workshops were showcased in the 3-day fully-packed conference.

The main highlight of the conference, the

Welcoming Dinner and Opening Ceremony, was attended by the Deputy Vice Chancellor, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Hj. Kassim Hj. Md. Mansur, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Student Affairs and Alumni. The Deputy Vice-Chancellor was impressed with the big turnout and commended SPPS for the adventurous and fruitful collaboration with our international counterparts in organizing such an event.

Pre-Conference workshop led by Prof. Lesjia Opp-Bechman

Welcoming Dinner and Opening Ceremony

Ongoing plenary session attended by enthusiastic GloCALL 2010 participants