

KPMG CAREER TALK

A About 50 final year accounting students attended a career talk given by Mr. Tai Yoon Foo, a partner in KPMG, Sabah. KPMG is a big four audit firm, which has been accepting UMS final year accounting students as interns in the firm, as part of their degree's practical training requirement. The global firm has also employed a number of UMS accounting graduates in its offices around the country.

In addition to sharing information on KPMG company background and its services in auditing, tax and advisory, Mr. Tai shared the expected career progression of a fresh graduate within the audit firm. He also advised the students to think logically and to be able to work independently. Also present were at the talk were KPMG Sabah managers, Madam Chin Pei Sze and Madam Suzy Maiks.

The talk was held at Main Meeting Room, School of Business and Economics on 11 October 2011. Its main objective is to prepare students for the six month practical training in their final semester.

