

UMS POLYCLINIC KINGFISHER

UMS polyclinic commenced services in January 2009. The launching of this polyclinic was held on 28 January 2010. The polyclinic is managed by the School of Medicine. Because of its attachment to the UMS, School of Medicine, it will provide a high level of medical care that is evidence based and socially driven in keeping with the school objectives.

OBJECTIVES

1. To provide a high standard of clinical service to the community
2. To provide psychological and counselling services
3. To provide basic on site emergency services prior to transfer to secondary or tertiary facilities
4. To incorporate Health Promotion and Education as part of the service

SERVICES

- Outpatient service
- Emergency service
- Pharmacy
- Laboratory
- Dressing/ Minor Surgery
- Health Promotion
- Radiography (coming soon)

