A night at the ballroom was filled with flashes of lights, beautifully dressed and wonderful young medical graduates. The School of Medicine, Universiti Malaysia Sabah organized a Dinner with the Final Year Students 2006 / 2011 on the 9th April 2011 at Tang Dynasty Hotel, Kota Kinabalu, Sabah. The appreciation night began at 7.30pm and officiated by the Dean of School of Medicine, Professor Dr Osman Ali.

During the dinner, all the audience were entertained by karaoke performances by the staff and students. AP Dr Shahril entertained the audience with a song entitled "Bila Larut Malam", (an original song by the late singer Saloma) with 3 other backup singers. After the dinner session, the certificates of appreciation were presented to the students who scored PNGK 3.5 and above, Best Module, Best Professional Exam II and Best Student (Year 5) by the Dean and all the Deputy Deans. Other than that, there was a pleasant surprise being unexpectedly announced, that is, the recipient of the Best Overall Student from Year 1 until year 5. The event rounded up with the students' singing "We are the World" that was dedicated to their beloved lecturers, a photography and karaoke sessions and ended at about 11.00pm.
