

FONG LI JEUN (HE10), MOHD AZHANI MOHD NOOR (HE18) & YEO SIAW BOO (HE 07) RECEIVED BEST STUDENT AWARD 2008

School of Business & Economics recently announced best student awards to top three students in their own fields namely; Fong Li Jeun (Best Student Award - ACADEMIC), Yeo Siaw Boo (Best Student Award - CO-CURRICULUM) & Mohd Azhani Mohd Noor (Tokoh Mahasiswa Contoh). The School Selection Committee had a tough time to choose the best student from a pool of students nominated from each program in SPE. The above mentioned three top students were chosen based on their merit and excellence in their fields. Fong Li Jeun, a marketing student excelled in her studies and was on the Dean List every semester. Her final CGPA at the end of her studies was 3.82. Mohd Azhani Mohd Noor who graduated with Bachelor of Accounting (Hons) degree was chosen for being active in Student Representative Council as well as at university and international levels where at the same time maintaining his studies. He is a very outgoing type of person, well behaved and respected by friends and lecturers. Meanwhile, Yeo Siaw Boo was chosen for his involvement in sports and co-curriculum activities. His involvement in co-curriculum among others was representing the country especially in Lion Dance Competition.

“The School Selection Committee had a tough time to choose the best student from a pool of students nominated from each program in SPE”