

UMS WAVOC SEMINAR 2008

In conjunction with the visiting tour of a group of volunteers from Waseda University Japan recently, the volunteers and students of Business & Economics School jointly organized a seminar which was held at DKP 5 on 29 Feb 2008. Waseda University Volunteer Centre (WAVOC) consist of volunteers mainly students and staff of the Waseda University. WAVOC is very active in doing a research, welfare and charity activities all over the world including Tanzania, Kenya, Argentina as well as Borneo. Three papers were presented during the seminar which was attended by almost 60 students and staffs.