

BBQ PARTY TO MARK END OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS STUDENTS & WASEDA UNIVERSITY, JAPAN UNDERGRADUATES JOINT COMMUNITY PROJECT AT NUMBAK AREA

A BBQ was held at SBE Lobby Area to mark the end of joint community project by members of Waseda University student attached to Volunteer Corps Center and International Business program (HE 09) student recently. During the project, the student keep aside the racial and political sentiment with a mission to instill the sense of concern among the residents how to manage and keep the environment liveable. Apart from doing a cleaning project at Kg. Numbak the student also helped to build a hanging bridge in a remote place in Kampung Mantaranau, Kiulu. The 20 volunteer students was led by their program Director, Dr. Iwai Yukin and was well received by Dr. Fumitaka Furuoka on behalf of School of Business & Economics.

Student, Wong Yew Chong who also join the community project was really happy to be in the project as it could also enhance the ties among the Japanese students.
