Tourism Management (HP 08) students taking Culture in Tourism subject organized a wedding party for 'Shahrukh Khan' and 'Aishwariya Rai' at the BES foyer. The mock wedding party was well organized as it followed the real traditional culture as what the Indians practiced in their wedding. With a full Indian setting, the wedding which was held at the foyer got much attention from staff & students at SPE with Indian music in the background. Some international students who coincidentally passed thru the foyer took the opportunity to watch the event.
