

WORLD TOURISM DAY: TOURISM STUDENTS LAUNCHED THEIR CLUB

In conjunction with the 'World Tourism Day' which celebrated every 27 Sept 2007, the students of Tourism Management programs (HP 08) has organized the event at the foyer of SPE. Among the activities were the launching of Tourism's Club logo and their own song. Dean, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Hj. Kasim Hj. Md. Mansur was the guest of honor who also graced the events. The Dean praised the students for actively involving with such activities as it shows their sensitivity with the global issues happening around the world. Among other guests are Deputy Dean, Pg. Dr. Hassanal Bahar Pg. Bagul, Head of Tourism Program, Mr. Kamarul Mizal Marzuki and several other lecturers.

"Tourism Opens Doors for Women" was chosen as a United Nation World Tourism Day by UNWTO. The guests and students listen to the message from Sec. Gen. of UNWTO which was recorded earlier. This year celebration tries to highlight the contribution of women in the tourism sector by providing enormous opportunities for their advancement. The students also organized quiz, exhibition and performance to entertain the guests. Program Director, Jeffarison Solingkin thanked all the guests and students for attending the event.
