AP Dr Kamarudin D Mudin was appointed as Acting Dean for School of Medicine replacing Prof Dr Osman Ali who finished his term as the Dean. He has vast experience in running the school as he had been a Deputy Dean (Academic & Students Affairs) before. Dr Kamarudin will execute the duties of the Dean in running the school. With his vast experience, strength and commitment; it is hoped that he would bring the school to a higher level of achievement. A Tribute to the former dean school of medicine, Prof Dr Osman Ali was held on 15 July 2011 at the Hyatt Hotel. This event aimed to record the school's appreciation and gratitude for Prof Dr Osman on his contributions and dedication as the founder dean and of the countless efforts and sacrifices he rendered during his eight years tenure as the School's dean. The event began at 8.00pm with a speech from the acting dean school of medicine AP Dr D Kamaruddin D Mudin. In his speech he expressed his profound gratitude to Prof Dr Osman for all the hard work he has done in bringing the School of Medicine the level as it is today, also on his efforts in establishing a permanent campus of the School of Medicine. In addition, he hoped that Prof. Dr Osman Ali will continue to serve the School of Medicine in UMS. The ceremony continued with a speech from Prof Dr Osman who thanked the school for holding the special event for him. In his humble speech, he stated that the school's success and what it is today are results of collective efforts from all the staff and hoped that the effort and excellent teamwork will be continued and maintained. He added that with the new management team, the school will grow further and achieve excellence in all aspects. He also recorded his sincere apology to any staff that he might have unintentionally and unknowingly hurt during his tenure. The staffs that were present were also invited to say words of gratitude and appreciation to Prof Dr Osman. The event continued with the dinner, karaoke performances by SPU staff. The event ended at 10.00 pm with presentation of gifts and a photo session.
