TUESDAY, 10 FEBRUARY – A total of 35 staff of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) attended the Sustainable Leadership Course organised by the EcoCampus Management Centre, starting today.

According to the centre’s Director, Dr. Awangku Hassan Bahar Pengiran Bagul, the participants were made up of academic staff, administrators and students.

“This course which is held for three days will see the presentation of talks on theories of sustainable leadership on the first day.

“Whereas, on the second and third day, participants will tour several areas to see for themselves some activities related to the implementation of nature conservation,” he explained.

He was speaking to reporters after launching the programme, officiated by the Dean of the Faculty of Business, Economics and Accounting, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Rashid Mail.

The course, which will end on Thursday, among others aimed to educate participants and give greater awareness on sustainable leadership.

It was also an effort towards making the university as an institution that emphasised on environmental sustainability.
