MONDAY, 09 SEPTEMBER – A total of 1,016 students completed the 9th Higher Learning Institutions' Passing-out Parade and Certificate Presentation of the Police Student Volunteer Corps (SUKSIS) recently.

Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) was represented by 39 students accompanied by six police officers including three parade officers.

The historical event was officiated by the Inspector-General of Police, Tan Sri Dato' Seri Khalid Abu Bakar at the Parade Field of International Islamic University (UIAM), Selangor.

Speaking at the function, he said that youths were the pillars of the nation's future especially graduates who will be leaders of the nation.

“The same for our line of defence and the safety of our nation which has been established based on the capability and strength of our youths today,” he said.

SUKSIS Corps was established on 4 February 1999 and was the brainchild of former Prime Minister, Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi. The objective of its establishment was to produce graduates who are familiar with the law, highly disciplined, resilient, and with good personality in line with the Royal Malaysian Police (PDRM) principles. – FL
