THURSDAY, 02 APRIL – A total of 40 students from Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Faculty of Business, Economics and Accountancy visited the Federal Territory of Labuan, recently.

The delegation led by the Head of International Business Programme, Rini Suryati Sulong also visited the Labuan Financial Services Authority (Labuan FSA) at the Labuan Financial Park Complex and Labuan Liberty Port Management Sdn Bhd (LLPM) at Merdeka Port.

They obtained various information about the economic and industrial fields as well as ports and shipping, which also boost the economy of the Federal Territory of Labuan.

According to Rini, the delegation comprised first and second year students were exposed to the local and global economy, offshore financing, career opportunities and functions of FSA and LLPM.

“Students also had the opportunity to find out more about the field of management in Labuan FSA and LLPM, two agencies that help stimulate the economy,” he said.

He was speaking after a courtesy call on the Director of Labuan International Campus (UMSKAL), Associate Professor Dr. Murnizam Haji Halik at his office at Level 13, Tower Building.

Dr. Murnizam said various activities can be participated by students including water sports and beach activities that have become an icon in UMS Labuan.

The students also organised community activities at Kampung Pantai that exposed them to village atmosphere in this duty-free island.

Rini hoped the three-day visit to Labuan was able to open up the students’ minds about the industry and the rapid development which was booming as a result of commitment by the federal government through the Ministry of Federal Territories and Labuan Corporation since 1984. – ZMD (fl)
