

41 UMS KAL and UniSZA Undergraduates CS Work at Sungai Labu

Published: Friday, 16 January 2015 16:26 | Print | Hits: 944

Share 0

Recommend

Share 0

Tweet

Share

G+ Share 0

FRIDAY, 16th JANUARY – Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Kampus Antarabangsa Labuan (KAL) and Universiti Sultan Zainal Abidin (UniSZA), Terengganu will be organizing their Voice of Culture & Youth Volunteers programme at Kampung Sungai Labu beginning tomorrow.

According to the Programme Coordinator, Mohd Quazly Ariffin Anzy, the undergraduates, are both from UMSKAL and UniSZA Rakan Muda Secretariat, will be adopted and having their community service work at the village for three days.

He added that they will be a cultural night performance with dancing and singing from Terengganu and Labuan will be shown including Adai-Adai Dance.

“The participants will also played games and cleaning the Kampung Sungai Labu beaches with the villagers,” he said.

Quazly also mention that they will be visiting the small industry kuih cincin making at the village to learn on managing business.

The program, end on Monday, will be participated by undergraduates from both universities.

Media and Citra Division

Source: Azri Om