THURSDAY, 19 JUNE – A total of 66 staff (Professional and Administrative) of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) were feted to a ‘Handing of Promotion Letter’ Ceremony held today at the Café D’Sireh, Chancellery Building UMS.

The number comprised 32 staff from the Management and Professional group whilst the rest were support staff, which involved 23 posts of various grades.

The presentation of Promotion Letter was done by the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Datuk Dr. Mohd. Harun Abdullah witnessed by UMS Registrar, Datuk Abdullah Hj. Mohd. Said.

Earlier, Datuk Dr. Harun reminded the staff promoted to double their efforts in executing their tasks in accordance with their new position and rank in performing their duties and responsibilities at the university.

“I urge all staff to walk the talk. What we say should be carried out wholeheartedly with a strong commitment to accomplish the tasks.

“When you are promoted; your efforts, time and work productivity should be increased in proportion with the recognition accorded to you by the university,” he said.

He added each employee had a role to play in achieving the goals targeted by the university through teamwork. – MA (f)
