WEDNESDAY, 15 APRIL – Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) continues to take proactive measures to improve the quality of education in line with the government’s objective to gain recognition at international standard.

The intention was also shared by Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia (USIM) which recently made a working visit to UMS.

The visit made by the delegation comprising 11 USIM staff was intended as a sharing of experience and expertise.

Their arrival was warmly received by the Acting Head of Academic Services (BPA) UMS, Dayang Hajah Maimunah Adnan, who then gave a presentation on the management and academic affairs of BPA UMS.

Meanwhile, Senior Deputy Registrar of USIM Academic Management Division, Hammad Farhi Mohd Saudi when met said the visit was a return visit to BPA UMS who visited them in June 2012.

“It is also to foster closer relationship between USIM and UMS as well as a platform for mutual exchange of ideas on academic developments at both universities,” he added.

The delegation also visited the campus grounds besides visiting the UMS Museum as well as the Academic and Research Gallery. – ZMD (fl)
