WEDNESDAY, 18 JUNE – The Consulate-General of China in Kuching, Sarawak, Liu Quan met with international students from China studying in Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMSKAL) recently.

While chatting with about 159 students, he wanted them to study hard because the atmosphere and environment of the university were ideal in acquiring greater knowledge.

In fact, he said that students from China were lucky because Malaysia is a safe country and committed to the higher education institutions including providing good service to international students.

“Do not waste the opportunity to study in UMS Labuan as the Malaysian government is committed in helping international students including those from China to get their degrees at a higher level,” he said at a gathering held at Podium D, UMS Labuan Tower building.

Also present at the event was the Deputy Dean of the Faculty of International Finance (FKAL), Dr. Lee Hock Ann who represented UMSKAL Director, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ismail Ali, President of the Chinese Chamber of Labuan, Datuk Wong Kii Yii and the Vice-President of the International Student Association (UMSIS), Tan Pei Jie. – SS (fl)
