WEDNESDAY, 24th DECEMBER – A student of Faculty of Computing and Informatics (FKI), Ang Ling Jun has won the grand prize in the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) 1 Malaysia book voucher lucky draw event which held at Anjung Siswa Building, Student Affairs and Alumni Department recently. The student brought home a Honda motorcycle worth RM 5,000.

According to UMS Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Student Affairs and Alumni), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ismail Ali, the book voucher can be said as pennies from heaven, given from the government through the Department of Higher Education to UMS students.

“All university students are very fortunate to have been chosen to enjoy the facilities provided by the government. The students need to choose the books wisely and buy the relevant books needed in their current teaching and learning process,” he said during the officiating ceremony.

Apart from the Honda motorcycle as the grand prize, other prizes won during the event are 4 Samsung S3 smartphone, 3 Samsung Mega smartphone, 4 ASUS laptop and 30 consolation hampers.

The event which was organized by UMS Cooperative (Koperasi UMS) was also attended by the Honorary Board Chairman of UMS Cooperative, other board members and also UMS officers.-HH (JA)
