

FKSW Holds National Seminar on Nation Building 2015

Published: Tuesday, 03 March 2015 15:15 | Print | Hits: 812

Tweet

Share

G+ Share

0

TUESDAY, 3 MARCH – The Faculty of Humanities, Arts and Heritage (FKSW) Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) organised a National Seminar on Nation Building 2015: Sabah Development in Malaysia, at YTL Auditorium UMS.

The seminar started with its first series today featuring leading personalities and renowned speakers, namely former Sabah Chief Minister, Tan Sri Harris Salleh; former State Attorney General, Tan Sri Herman J. Luping and Senior Lecturer at the Department of Communication, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak

(UNIMAS), Dr. Jeneri Amir.

The seminar which will be held in four series among others debated on various issues and conflicts, particularly from the Sabah and Sarawak perspectives which were seen to be a challenge in efforts towards being a developed nation by 2020.

In addition, the seminar acted to provide academic and factual explanations on issues related to the position of Sabah and Sarawak in the formation of Malaysia.

Three other series were scheduled on 11, 18 and 25 March, to be held at the same venue.

Among the presenters were UMS Vice-Chancellor, Professor Datuk Dr. Mohd Harun Abdullah; former Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Tan Sri Bakri Mohd. Zinin and former Sabah Archive Department, Datuk Datu Tiga Belas Datuk Zainal Abidin. – ZMD (fl)

Photo: Johaidi Ismail

Media and Citra Division