

Grateful and Patience, Characteristics of a Virtuous Individual

Published: Wednesday, 18 February 2015 10:23 | Print | Hits: 1106

Share 0

Recommend

Share 0

Tweet

Share

G+ Share 0

WEDNESDAY, 18th FEBRUARY – Around 250 Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) staffs and students present during a special talk, in conjunction with Maulidur Rasul celebration 1436H held at Recital Hall (Dewan Resital). The talk was presented by a guest speaker, Ustaz Malai Ali Malai Ahmad reminded all university community to practise work ethics according to the Rasulullah pbuh sunnahs.

According to him, a virtuous character will lead individuals to be more responsible person when performing their task; it's a great tact and this will become example to their colleagues.

“Sayyida Ali (ra) once said; be like the flower, giving fragrance while living. People who spread fragrance in the world are the one who are virtuous, ethical and practising their Prophet’s sunnah. People cried when they die for losing him/her,” he added.

He further advice the audience to be grateful for all Allah blessings and always be patient overcoming tests from Allah.

A virtuous individual are the person with these characteristic; always be grateful and have patience. These characteristics will ensure us not to feel envious towards others,” he added more.

The talk was organised by al-Muqrashid contingent, made up of the Faculty of Humanities, Arts and Heritage (FKSW), Faculty of Business, Economics and Accountancy (FPEP), Faculty of Psychology and Education (FPP), Centre for the Promotion of Knowledge and Language (PPIB) and UMS External Centre (PLUMS).

Media and Citra Division

Photo: Department of Information