MONDAY, 14 OCTOBER – A Kinabalu Public Lecture Series by social activist, Tan Sri Datuk Seri Panglima (Dr.) Lee Lam Thye will be held on 16 October, at 8.30 am at the Yeoh Tiong Lay (YTL) Hall, Yayasan UMS Building.

The public lecture organised by the School of Social Sciences in collaboration with the Kadazan Dusun Chair and the Ethnography Research and Development Unit will touch on ‘Moral and Social Agenda For 1Malaysia’.

This is an academic programme aimed at creating room for scholarly talks to express ideas by leaders and the learned regarding the existence and development of Sabah.

This academic talk is also aimed at elevating local knowledge in the field of social sciences in Sabah.

The first series was organised on 2 February 2012 featuring Eminent Professor Datuk Dr. Shamsul Amri Baharuddin from Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, while the second series was held on 1 May 2012 which saw the former Prime Minister of Malaysia, Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohammad giving a talk to a packed audience made up of UMS community.

The public are also welcome. - FL
