TUESDAY, 09th JUNE – The Student Representatives Council (Majlis Perwakilan Pelajar or MPP) of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) recently successfully organized a humanitarian programme, Alunan Inspirasi Sanubari (AIS) through Academic and Training Exco.

According to MPP Deputy President, Nurlina Arappe, the programme was held at Anjung Siswa, UMS Student Affairs Department. Touching on humanity and spiritual element, the programme reflects on incidents happening in Malaysia and other Islamic countries.

“The programme begins at 9.00 in the morning and end at 11.00 in the evening also reflects on a few incidents including MH370 and MH17 incidents and also oppression to the Palestinians by the Zionist and the crisis in Syria.

In the meantime, the director of the programme, Fazrie Ramalan said that the programme was also a joint-collaboration between Malam Sejuta Kemanusiaan and Rakan Masjid Club members.

“Among the interesting activities are nasyid competition, khat writing, poem, and MH370 forum with panels among the victims’ families.”

“There will be a flash mob on Zionist atrocity and oppression to the Islamic countries such as Syria and Palestine. The highlight of the event will be the nasyid performance by Raihan,” he added. –SS
