THURSDAY, 09 APRIL – About 60 employees of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS), Labuan International Campus (KAL) attended the Records Disposition Workshop, recently.

The participants comprised Assistant Administrative Officers and Administrative Assistants who joined the two-day workshop held at the Executive Conference Room, Level 11, Tower Building UMSKAL.

The workshop was organised by the Director of the National Archives Department Sabah Branch, Saudah Ab

Manap and Assistant Director, Corriena Imang.

Saudah said the workshop, which was held for the first time aimed to provide an understanding by civil servants especially staff of UMSKAL on the method of disposing of records correctly.

“It is the responsibility of the National Archives of Malaysia Sabah Branch to help civil servants, especially staff of UMSKAL on the correct and systematic way of disposing of records,” she said.

The workshop was organised in collaboration with the Administration Division of UMSKAL in collaboration with the National Archives Sabah Branch. – SS (fl)
