FRIDAY, 27 JUNE – Seeing the importance of corporate governance in improving the overall performance of an organisation, the Registrar Department, Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) held a Corporate Governance Course recently.

A total of 56 participants comprising key officials, deans, directors, heads and officials of department, faculty, centre, institute and unit participated in the one-day course.

Also present was the Chairman of the Board of Directors UMS, Tun Dato' Seri Zaki Tun Azmi, Members of the Board of Directors UMS, Datuk Ag Buhtamam Ag Mahmud and Datuk Pg. Hj. Mohd Hussein Datuk Pg. Hj. Mohd Tahir Nasruddin.

The course was delivered by the Malaysian Institute of Corporate Governance Advisor, Ahmad Shahab Hj Din who had extensive experience in corporate governance in the public and private sectors in the 43 years of his career.

The course, which was inspired by Tun Zaki was aimed at introducing and sharing the best practices of corporate governance in order to benefit the university, particularly in driving towards continued excellence thus able to compete with other higher education institutions in the region. – MA (fl)
