TUESDAY, 3 JUNE - Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) have established a good relationship with Indonesia, especially with the universities in Indonesia, through various cooperations.

The latest, UMS paid a courtesy call to Sekolah Indonesia Kota Kinabalu (SIKK) as one of the efforts to strengthen the bond of Malaysia-Indonesia's ties.

According to UMS's Acting Director of Centre for International Affairs, Molly Donna Datuk Hj. Awang Sham, the visit is to present an appointment letter to SIKK as UMS Preparatory School.

Education Diplomat, Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia Kuala Lumpur, said, we hope there will be collaboration through Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between UMS and SIKK in education.

"On behalf of the Indonesia Government, we hope that the collaboration between SIKK and UMS will be continues as long as SIKK will be in Sabah," he added.

UMS are offering 1% from their annual undergraduate student intake in order to increase their international students from Indonesia. -ZMD (JA)
