FRIDAY, 25 APRIL – The School of Business and Economics (SPE) Business Carnival 2014 which was held for two days starting yesterday was aimed at instilling entrepreneurial skills in our undergrads.

Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Datuk Dr. Mohd. Harun Abdullah said such programmes also supported SPE's niche area since its establishment 20 years ago, and was synonymous in the field of entrepreneurship that had produced graduates to meet with industry needs.

“I believe SPE will continue to produce graduates who are capable of displaying an effective intellectual integrity with a high level of knowledge, which directly contributes to an increased level of graduates in the working world,” he said when opening the carnival at the Lobby of SPE.

SPE Business Carnival 2014 held in conjunction with UMS 20th year in establishment, served a variety of activities throughout the two days including a career talk, stock market simulation, exhibitions, colouring competition etc.

Also held was the opening of SPE Stock Trading and Gallery and SPE's The HotelLab. – MA (fl)
