

SPS Organises Outcome Based Education

Published: Thursday, 05 September 2013 10:15 | Print | Hits: 2611

Tw eet

Share

G+ Share

0

THURSDAY, 05 SEPTEMBER – The School of Arts (SPS) Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) recently organised a workshop on Outcome Based Education.

The two-day workshop among others was an effort by SPS to give input to lecturers as a preparatory step before the 2013/2013 academic session begins.

A few invited speakers were present to give a talk on teaching and learning of arts.

Among them were a lecturer from Universiti Sains Malaysia (USM), Emeritus Prof. Dato' Dr. Ghouse Nasuruddin and Deputy Speaker of the State Legislative Assembly, Datuk Johnson Tee.

Also in the panel of presenters were the Deputy Director of Strategic Management and Academic Centre UMS, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Jennifer Chan and lecturers from the School of Education and Social Development (SPPS), Dr. Lee Kean Wah and Dr. Tan Choon Keong including a lecturer from SPS, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Low Kok On.

In concluding the workshop, Assoc. Prof. Abdul Jamal Abdul Hamid hoped that all participants which comprises lecturers and tutors of the school had benefitted from the workshop where participants can apply onto their teaching and learning session.

Also present at the workshop was Theatre lecturer from SPS who was also the Chairman of the Day 1 workshop, Dr. Andika Aziz Hussin. - FL

By Salbinous Saribun and the School of Arts

Photo: TheSchool of Arts

Chancellery Department