

SPS Wins State Level Presentation and Best Theatre Actor

Published: Wednesday, 01 May 2013 00:00 | Print | Hits: 2441

Share 0

Recommend Share 0

Tweet

Share

G+ Share 0

WEDNESDAY, 01 MAY – The School of Arts Studies (SPS) continued to carve its name in the local theatre arena which had made a name for Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) in the State Level Theatre Competition which was held at the National Cultural and Arts Department (JKKN) Sabah recently.

At the competition, UMS showcased the script written by Tasia Arlina Ismail entitled ‘Dialogue to the Moon’ under the supervision of SPS lecturer, Dr. Andika Aziz Hussin.

The manuscript brought success to the Grup Teater-Lab SPS when they emerged as the winner in both Presentation and Best Actor through Amsali Pisali, thus continuing to make UMS’ name wellknown in Borneo.

With the win, UMS brought home cash prize of RM3,500 as the Champion in the Presentation Category and RM500 through Best Actor including a trophy.

The competition organised by Green Leaf Theatre House in collaboration with Anti Dadah Malaysia Association (PEMADAM) Sabah branch aimed to bring awareness to youths on social issues and the danger of dadah abuse. – FL

Soruce: School of Arts Studies

Information and Media Section, Corporate Relations Division