

Staff in 16 Service Scheme Will Receive Improvement

Published: Friday, 17 January 2014 12:03 | Print | Hits: 2190

Share 0

Recommend

Share 0

Tweet

Share

G+ Share 0

Friday, 17 January – UMS staff from 16 service scheme will receive improvement in accordant with the announcement of 2014 Budget by the Prime Minister, Dato' Seri Mohd. Najib Tun Abdul Razak.

Luqman Ridha Anwar, Head of Human Resource Division said, among schemes involved with the improvements are general assistant, agriculture assistant, craftsman, driver, public health assistant, technician, assistant engineer, draughtsman, designer and also photographer.

According to him, the new service circular by the Public Service Department regarding the improvement of 81 schemes included legislation of 1 new service scheme, improvements of 73 service schemes and 7 obsolete service schemes, and annulment of 131 obsolete service schemes.

He also mention, other than new rates of annual increment to the public service government, the implementation improvement are also give chances to the government servants to master skills or expertise in various fields and career advancement opportunity and staff mobility.

It was mention during the 81 Service Scheme Improvement in accordant to the 2014 Budget Talk to more than 150 UMS staffs here in UMS Gallery.

Media Division
Chancellery Department