THURSDAY, 28 AUGUST – Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) is inviting those in and around Kota Kinabalu to attend Friday prayers at UMS Mosque tomorrow, and for a sermon to be delivered by renowned ulama in this corner of the region, Sheikh Muhammad Nuruddin Marbu Al-Banjari Al-Makki.

Originating from Banjarmasin, South Kalimantan Indonesia, he is also a founder of the Ma'ahad Az-Zein Al-Makky Al-Ally educational institution located in Ciampea, Bogor, Indonesia.

Al-Fadhil Sheikh Muhammad Nuruddin Marbu Al-Banjari Al-Makki is currently in a Tour Sabah 2014 programme starting 28 August until 2 September.

Besides giving sermon at UMS Mosque tomorrow, he is also scheduled to deliver a Tazkirah Asar at the Kota Kinabalu City Mosque before heading to Tuaran to deliver a Kuliah Maghrib at Masjid An-Nur.

Al-Fadhil Sheikh Muhammad Nuruddin received his early education at Sekolah Rendah Kampung Harus and Pondok Pesantren Normal Islam, South Kalimantan before graduating with a Bachelor in Syariah at Al-Azhar Asy-Syarif University Cairo, Egypt. – ZMD (fl)
