FRIDAY, 09 MAY – Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) always place importance on quality in every aspect of management and governance of the university, especially for the purpose of teaching and learning (P&P).

Recently, the Strategic and Academic Management Centre (PPSA) organised an ISO 9001:2008 (P&P) UMS Internal Quality Audit Course at the Event Gallery, Chancellery Building.

According to a statement issued by PPSA, the course aimed at providing exposure and training to new UMS

Internal Auditors of MS ISO 9001:2008 quality.

The statement also said the course was an effort and commitment by the university towards increasing the number of qualified Internal Auditors in UMS.

At the course, participants were exposed to the five phases of implementation of audit from Audit Planning Techniques, Audit Preparation, Audit Conduct, Audit Report and Audit Follow-up.

A total of 20 participants attended the ISO 9001:2008 (P&P) Internal Quality Audit course which was conducted by MS ISO Malaysia quality consultant, Haji Mohammad Nazri Abd. Rani. – ZMD (fl)
