MONDAY, 23rd MARCH – A total of 50 Indian Cultural Nite (ICN) Universiti Malaysia Sabah Labuan International Campus (UMSKAL) committee members recently held a Community Service programme at Mutiara Community-Based Rehabilitation Centre (PDK), Kg. Ganggarak.

The programme was held in conjunction with 2015 Indian Cultural Nite to show ICN was not just a cultural and arts programme but it was also a humanity and welfare programme to those who needed, in the Federal Territory of Labuan areas.

The programme was also function as a bridge to UMSKAL and local communities.

Also present during the programme were UMSKAL Student Affairs Department Assistant Registrar, Mohd Fadzli Sarudi, and ICN 2015 Programme Director, Thinakaran Suppiah.

Mohd Fadzli, who is also Indian Cultural Nite 2015 Coordinator, expressed his thanks to PDK Mutiara for welcoming ICN Committee Members. The members, who are all UMSKAL students, learn PDK Mutiara services and functions in providing assistance and supports to those who are less fortunate.

Mohd Fadzli was representing UMSKAL Director, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Murnizam Haji Halik, said that the university is prepared to assist PDK Mutiara in charity works involving UMSKAL students and staffs in the future.

The visit was one of ICN 2015 programmes celebrated by multiracial students in UMSKAL. –SS
