

8 Students from Malaysia Attend Summer Course in Indonesia

Published: Wednesday, 13 September 2017 23:06 | Print | Hits: 1514

Tweet

Share

G+ Share

WEDNESDAY, 13 SEPTEMBER – Faculty of Humanities, Arts and Heritage (FKSW, Universiti Malaysia Sabah(UMS) recently sent eight students under its Geography Programme to a Summer Course in Indonesia accompanied by its Senior Lecturer, Dr. Gaim James Lunkapis.

According to a statement issued, the eight students were recipients of the Smart City, Village and Region (SCVR) Course scholarship offered by Universitas Gadjah Mada (UGM), Jogjakarta, Indonesia.

The eight students were Erwina Nuar, Nurshaslinda Abdul Kadir, Brenda Sandan, Nurallyyana Zainuddin, NurIzzah Nabilah Haron, Nur Jannah Roslan, Eccaleena Chrissy Latius and Thressa Veney Ansilimus.

They were among 35 international participants involving 10 countries from the Europe and Asian Regions namely United States of America, Vietnam, Colombia, Pakistan, Indonesia, Germany, Thailand, Cambodia, Palestine and Malaysia.

The course involved 13 other lecturers including two from Malaysia; Dr. Goh Hong Ching and Professor Dr. Lee Boon Thong, who were both from Universiti Malaya.

The statement added, SCVR was a noble effort in improving the understanding on the use of Information and Communications Technology (ICT) in the concept of region, village and smart city.

The course also aimed at expanding international collaboration between two higher education institutions; Universiti Malaysia Sabah and Universitas Gadjah Mada, Indonesia. – FL