WEDNESDAY, 26 JULY – Faculty of Humanities, Arts and Heritage (FKSW) Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) today had an appreciation luncheon for two of its staff, Dr Rosnah Ishak and Ailina Jampadin who would be leaving the faculty by end of July.

Dr. Rosnah Ishak, a Senior Lecturer who was the Postgraduate Programme Coordinator for FKSW would be leaving UMS to join another public university closer to her hometown in the Peninsular Malaysia.

Prior to her appointment in UMS, she was a teacher with SMK Merotai in Tawau, Sabah for three years.

Assistant Registrar of FKSW, Ailina Jampadin, who has been with FKSW since March 2013 is assigned to the Centre for Postgraduate Studies (PPPS), UMS starting 1 August 2017.

The move is part of a rotation system for its management and support staff practiced in UMS.

In his speech, Dean of FKSW, Professor Dr. Ismail Ibrahim thanked both staff for their dedication and commitment in serving UMS particularly at the faculty the past years.

“We should always strive to work diligently without reservation wherever work brings us to and to give our best,” he said.

Also present at the gathering were the Deputy Dean of Academic and Internationalisation, Dr. Marsitah Mohd Radzi; Deputy Dean of Student Affairs and Alumni, Dr. Mohamad Puad Bebit; and Heads of Programmes. – FL
