FRIDAY, 17 FEBRUARY – The Faculty of Humanities, Arts and Heritage (FKSW) recently held an Akademic Retreat to refine the Code of Practice for Programme Accreditation (COPPA) MQA-02 documentation held at the Postgraduate Centre Auditorium, Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS).

According to the Deputy Dean of Academic and International, Dr. Marsitah Mohd Radzi, the aim of the retreat was to prepare for the coming Malaysian Qualifications Agency-02 SIRIM audit in July.

“This retreat includes discussions among lecturers and to complete Table 3 MQA for each course, course mapping based on PLO, PEO and CLO according to their individual programmes,” she added.

Earlier, a retreat for administrative staff of FKSW titled “We Are Family” was held at Borneo Paradise Beach in preparation for the COPPA retreat.

The retreat officiated by the Dean of FKSW, Prof. Dr. Ismail Ibrahim included Team Building activities and Resolution Presentation, among others. - FL
