TUESDAY, 18 OCTOBER – Universiti Malaysia Sabah Islamic Centre (PIUMS) recently organised a 'Ziarah Fillah' Programme at Surau Al-Hidayah Kampung Giling Laut Tuaran.

According to the Director of PIUMS, Dr. Mohd. Suhaimi Taat, the programme among others aimed at disseminating knowledge and religious obligations for the community of the village thus improving the implementation of solat that adhere to hukum and sunnah.

“Besides Tahsin Solat course and Managing of the Dead, the programme fosters closer relationship between UMS and the local community,” he said when officiating at the programme.

“UMS Islamic Centre are always ready to share knowledge with the community in the village whenever there is a need,” he added.

Also present was the Chairman of Surau Al-Hidayah, Muslin Jaim.

The one-day course attracted 90 participants comprising villagers of Kampung Giling Laut, and UMS staff. – (f)
