FRIDAY, 3 JUNE – The Academic Session II 2015/2016 Co-curriculum Mini Carnival organised by the Co-curriculum and Student Development Centre (PKPP) was successfully held at the Dewan Canselor (Chancellor Hall), Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS).

Speaking during the official opening of the carnival, PKPP Director, Associate Professor Dr. Raman

Noordin said that the organising of the event had indeed given the students a learning experience that benefit them and would be applied to their everyday life.

“The talent and potential of our students are assessed by the lecturers and university officials for the purpose of excellence and further to the next level,” he explained.

He added that the carnival hoped to produce future leaders who had the wholesome characteristics and confidence.

Various activities were also held during the event, among them were an exhibition from all curriculum courses, best performance and a blood donation drive.

According to the Director of the Co-curriculum Mini Carnival Semester II, 2015/2016 Session, Ag. Basiran Ag. Ali, the mini carnival was held to showcase the learning outcome and activities carried out during the 14 weeks of all mandatory courses.

The involvement of international students in the mini carnival this time reflected that these activities were able to foster unity not only among local students but international students as well. – (f)
