LABUAN: Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) will collaborate with Koperasi Rakyat Labuan Berhad (KORAL) to promote the latter's products to the people here.

The campus director, Associate Professor Dr Shariff Abdul Kadir Omang, said the promotion would be done by students of Labuan International Finance and Business School and Labuan Informatics Science School.

"The students will do the publicity and marketing for the KORAL products among the islanders, especially the students here.

"I will propose to set up the co-operative at the campus here to the UMS-KAL management," he said after he received a courtesy call from KORAL chairman Hjh Fauziah Datuk Mohd Din in his office.

Dr Shariff said there would be great demand for KORAL products at the campus which has 2,500 students and staff.

"With the collaboration between UMS-KAL and KORAL, it will be easier for the students to get cheaper products and services than in the market.

"The students can also take advantage through the collaboration by learning entrepreneurship. It will be the right time for the students to use the knowledge they learned at class," he said.

KORAL secretary Kamaruzzaman Abd Samad, Malaysian Co-operative Commission Labuan director Abd Ghani Aman, UMS-KAL deputy registrar Zamri Mohamad Tuah and the assistant senior registrar for Student Affairs Department, Norhanizah Adna, were present.
