THURSDAY, 19 MAY – A ceremony to appreciate staff of the Faculty of Science and Natural Resources (FSSA) was held recently to celebrate academicians and non-academicians who had performed well and had contributed significantly to the faculty.

Held at the Main Meeting Room, FSSA, the ceremony was graced by the Dean, Professor Dr. Baba Musta.

In his speech, he explained that the ceremony was held as a form of recognition to staff who had demonstrated well and

“It will also be a boost to other staff to maintain healthy competition among themselves to improve the quality of their service.

“This event also appreciates the contributions made by the employees of the department who had moved to other departments and those who had left the service,” he said.

He also hoped that the excellent service would continue consistently and would be a challenge to faculty staff to increase their productivity.

At the event, all excellent staff award recipients received souvenirs and their pictures would be exhibited at the main notice board of the faculty.
