MONDAY, 11 APRIL – 36 students of Universiti
Malaysia
Sabah (UMS) who were also members of the Secretariat of Rakan Muda
UMS successfully held a ‘Anak Permata’ programme in Tambunan, recently.

According to the Programme Director, Masayu

Ramlee, the programme involved 59 children from the Tambunan Orphan Home, aged between seven and 17 years old.

“This programme was organised to strengthen relationship and love for each other between the organiser and residents of the orphanage.

“The programme was also organised to improve physical and emotional resilience of participants in their group activities instilling creativity,” he said in a statement.

He added that such programme also add warmth among Rakan Muda members involved as well as the residents of the home.
