THURSDAY, 02 JUNE – Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) 1Malaysia Club recently organised a ‘Rimbunan Kasih’ programme to an orphanage including the poor and needy at Kampung Langsat, Ranau.

The Rimbunan Kasih programme was participated by 20 UMS students were also members of the 1Malaysia Club under the leadership of the Club President, Muhammad Firdaus Syarifuddin, whilst Isnira binti Naning acted as the Rimbunan Kasih 2016 programme Director.

The Rimbunan Kasih programme was organised to offer contributions to the welfare home that had just started its operations early this year whilst also socialising with the inmates of the home.

According to Muhammad Firdaus, a total of 26 residents aged between six and 16 years old benefited from the programme with various activities held by the organiser.

“Among the activities held were morning exercises, “Gummy Bears” and telematch that brought happiness and joy to the orphans, and to foster closer ties between students and the rural communities,” he explained.

The event ended with a handing-over of donations and tokens to the representative of the Orphanage, Kampung Langsat, Mohd Hainin. – (fl)
