THURSDAY, 8

OCTOBER – Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Auxiliary Police finished second in the Institution of Higher Learning Category in at the 62nd Official Birthday of the Head of State (TYT), Tun Juhar Mahiruddin 2015 Parade held last Saturday.

UMS Auxiliary Police Chief Contingent, Insp. (AP) Rakam Singh A/L Karam Singh said, the total strength of 30 members who participated the UMS Auxiliary Police Contingent for the parade had been mustering their every effort and teamwork that had resulted in an excellent commitment although they only managed to capture second place.

Indeed there were many smart and better contingents in the parade in the team event, but UMS Auxiliary Police had an extra advantage even though they had only a short time to practice.

“I am pleased with the dedication shown by all the members and would like to thank them for their commitment in upholding the reputation of UMS,” said Insp. (AP) Rakam Singh.

UMS took home a trophy, certificate and cash prize of RM1,000.

Insp. Rakam added that they identified their shortcomings to achieve greater success in future.

He thanked the management of UMS in particular the Vice-Chancellor, Professor Datuk Dr. Mohd Harun Abdullah; Head of Security UMS, Lt. Col Abdul Talib Ariffin and Acting Registrar of UMS, No'man Datuk Ahmad for their trust on the team and to represent UMS at the parade. – (fl)
