TUESDAY, 07 APRIL – Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) through EcoCampus Management Centre signed a Letter of Intent (LoI) with Adamson University, Philippines today.

The ceremony was held at the Gallery, Chancellery Building after the opening of the Regional Conference on Campus Sustainability Series 2.

UMS was represented by its Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Student Affairs and Alumni, Associate Professor Dr. Ismail Ali whilst Dr. Erison C. Roque represented

Adamson University.

Through the signing of the LoI, UMS EcoCampus Centre's capacity in organising regional conferences on sustainability will be further enhanced.

The collaboration will involve education and exchange of staff and students as well as cooperation in organising seminars, workshops and conferences.

Also present were the Director of EcoCampus, Associate Professor Dr. Justin Sentian and the Chairman of the Conference, Dr. Hassanal Bahar Pengiran Bagul. – SS (fl)
