MONDAY, 30 JUNE – The Student Welfare Committee (JAKMAS) Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMSKAL) was feted in the Appreciation Night 2014 at the Billion Pavillion Waterfront Hotel recently.

The ceremony was to appreciate the contributions and commitment of JAKMAS 2013/2014 Session besides being a place to mingle with the university's management level.

The ceremony was officiated by UMSKAL Director, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ismail Ali. In his speech, he expressed his thanks and gratitude for the commitment and contributions by JAKMAS to the development and advancement of the university's residential colleges.

He also advised all JAKMAS Committee members to always perform the duties entrusted to them with full responsibility.

The event also had a special award and certificate presentation ceremony to the JAKMAS committee members of both the residential colleges there.

The event was graced with a symbolic opening ceremony, which is a cake-cutting, UMSKAL students brass band and lucky draws. – SS (fl)
