TUESDAY, 23 SEPTEMBER – Students of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Labuan International Campus (UMSKAL) topped three sports in a competition organised by the Labuan Matriculation College (KML) recently.

The competition held at KML saw UMSKAL emerged champion in men's and women's volleyball as well as basketball, and runner-up for football.

UMSKAL Youth and Sports Officer, Gabriel Moinjil who represented the campus Director, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Murnizam Haji Halik congratulated all students who won in the three events.

He hoped that the victory would boost their morale to continue to achieve success in other competitions either at university, Federal Territory of Labuan, national or international levels.

The tournament was held for three days and was officiated by KML Director, Sawang @ Rizal Amit. – SS (fl)
